Area Attractions:

If you have never been to Salt Lake City, you can check out the sights by going to www.utah.com for a comprehensive overview of what the state has to offer.

The state of Utah is unique. We have more variety of landscapes, geology, and recreational opportunities than even we can imagine. While our national parks are considered national treasures, there are many more places to see and things to do that are just as amazing... and certainly less crowded! This section will help you to discover and explore some of Utah's more famous attractions, and the perhaps lesser known yet "worth-a-visit" sites nearby.

Salt Lake City Downtown Walking Tour

Salt Lake has a compact downtown area with wide, easy-to-maneuver streets. Within a few blocks of Temple Square - the city's best known attraction—there are several major Mormon historical sites and pioneer era buildings, as well as urban parks, shopping malls, cultural venues and even a planetarium.

Unless otherwise noted, the area code for telephone numbers listed is (801).

The Visitor Information Center

90 S. West Temple 521-2822 (800-541-4955). The ideal place to begin a visit to the Salt Lake area.
