Dear IACA Members and Friends:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the International Association of Commercial Administrators, I cordially invite you to the 42nd Annual IACA Conference to be held in New Orleans, Louisiana, from May 19th through May 23rd, 2019. The theme of this year's conference is "Unmasking the Possibilities".

The Annual Conference is IACA's signature event for networking, collaboration and information sharing among filing offices and industry professionals. In response to feedback that we have received, there will be topics concerning cyber security and fraud, API and business identity theft. There will also be topics relevant to everyday practices in filing offices which include vendor & business registry relationship, staffing solutions and transition –changes in administration and dealing with loss of knowledge. In addition, we will have discussions on GDPR and Series LLC, certificates of validation, transparency & sustainability standards among others.

We have scheduled several exciting evening events with the support of our partners. New Orleans has so much to offer and we hope to give you an experience that you will not soon forget. The sights, sounds and tastes of New Orleans are incomparable to those of any other city.

We have designated Wednesday evening as a "free" night so that you can explore and enjoy this great city in whatever way that you wish. Our hotel, the Crowne Plaza, is located at the corner of Bourbon and Canal Streets, so the never-ending festivities are literally steps away from your hotel room.
