Requesting Optional Business Data: Is the ministerial role of the business registry shifting?

Speakers: Chris Drake, Connecticut
Maureen Ewing, Rhode Island

Business registries are receiving more requests than ever for additional business information. Some registries are already collecting additional information on a voluntary basis. Learn what types of additional information are being collected, whether businesses are willing to provide this information and whether there are any downsides to collecting it. This session will discuss different approaches states are taking to gather additional information about the business owners and what the business does to help connect these entities to available resources and to publicly display economic development information.

4:00 – 5:00 Merit Awards
Sponsored by First Corporate Solutions
Speaker: April Wright, Delaware

5:00 – 6:00 Social Hour
