Illinois	Illinois asks the filer to mark the UCC 1 Financing pages to be attached as: attachments, exhibits, etc. (To Distinguish the attachment as different than the original) We feel that we are within our right as a filing officer to make the documents distinguishable from an original under the provision of 810 ILCS 5/9-516. If they are bogus we will not file the document until General Counsel reviews the submittal.
Indiana	Indiana will not file two UCC1 forms as one document. It would be filed as two different filings with two fees or one would be filed and the other rejected for lack of filing fee.
Iowa
Kansas	Kansas will not file two UCC1 forms as one document. It would be filed as two different filings with two fees or one would be filed and the other rejected for money.
Kentucky
Louisiana
Maine
Maryland
Massachusetts
Michigan	We will accept the attached pages with stamps from a different filing office because that in and of itself is not a rejection reason under Michigan law. However, if the submitter's UCC1 face page (without any jurisdiction stamps) contains something Michigan allows us to reject for, (e.g., debtor is a public official,) we will reject the submission.

Minnesota	Minnesota is the same as Wisconsin as well.
Mississippi
Missouri
Montana	Montana would contact the customer, however we would treat it as such: If they sent us enough to file two UCC's we would file them, if they only sent in enough $$ for one filing, we would file one, and reject the other one noting that we already filed the first one, and leave it to the customer to decide if they want to file the 2nd one or not.
Nebraska
Nevada	Nevada is just like Michigan.
New Hampshire
New Jersey
New Mexico
New York
North Carolina
North Dakota
Ohio	Ohio is also the same as Wisconsin.

Washington	Washington State is the same as Wisconsin.
West Virginia
Wisconsin	Wisconsin will file this UCC-1, treating one of the filings as the initial and the other as an attachment, provided there are no other reasons to reject the filing.

I hope this is a quick question. If you receive a UCC1 filing, that has two copies of the first page attached, with each of those pages stamped by a different recording office, would you accept the document for filing?

For example:

UCC1 with a recording stamp from X County

UCC1 with a recording stamp from Y County

Debtor, secured party, and collateral are identical on both documents

Filing party has requested that these two documents be filed together as a single UCC filing with the state.

Would your office accept this for filing?
