

Topic: European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Question by: Brenda Vorisek for Carlos A. Rey

Jurisdiction: Florida

Date: June 17, 2020

Jurisdiction	Question(s)
	European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) came into effect on May 25, 2018. The purpose of the GDPR-EU is to regulate the processing of personal data of European nationals. Under the GDPR-EU, European nationals can request personal data to be removed from websites. The Florida Department of State is trying to determine if other US states have received requests to remove or block data from their websites under the GDPR-EU and if so, have any of those states changed their records management protocols in response to the GDPR-EU.
