

Marion R. Weaver

Marion R. Weaver serves as the IT Director for the South Carolina Secretary of State. He received both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Columbia International University. Prior to serving in his current position Mr. Weaver served for 17 years as the network manager for South Carolina Parks, Recreation and Tourism, overseeing 200 networks in 56 locations throughout South Carolina. He received the Innovation Award from the South Carolina IT Directors Association in 2013. As the IT Director Mr. Weaver oversees all information technology infrastructure, personnel, and initiatives including the development of applications to better serve the citizens of South Carolina. He also enjoys spending time outdoors with his family.