

MARTHA BROWN, Assistant Counsel, Pennsylvania Department of State

Martha H. Brown is a graduate of the Dickinson School of Law, earning her Juris Doctorate in 1996. She received her baccalaureate degree from Mount Holyoke College in 1988. After a short stint in private practice affiliated with the Pennsylvania Immigration Resource Center, she began employment with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. She has been employed with the Department of Public Welfare, Bureau of Hearings and Appeals and with the Department of Labor and Industry, Workers' Compensation Appeal Board. For the past 18 years, she has been counseling the Department of State's Bureau of Corporations and Charitable Organizations, State Athletic Commission and the Division of Commissions, Legislation and Notaries within the Bureau of Commissions, Elections and Legislation.