

Topic: Non-profit Dissolutions
 Question by: Patrick Reed
 Jurisdiction: Washington
 Date: October 17, 2014

Jurisdiction	Question(s)
	1. Is your state experiencing an subtle increase in administrative or voluntary dissolutions for non-profit corporations? (The last 12-24 months) a. If yes, have you analyzed the reason they are dissolving? b. If yes, have you made any corrections such as outreach or education? 2. Do you have a high % of reinstatements after administrative dissolution for non-profits?
Manitoba
Corporations Canada
Alabama
Alaska
Arizona	We haven't been tracking nonprofits over other corps, and we also haven't noted any particular spikes in dissolutions.
Arkansas
California
Colorado
Connecticut
Delaware
District of Columbia	IN DC we have not experienced any spikes in dissolutions or reinstatements for nonprofit corporations. Numbers are pretty much the same over years. The numbers increased a little bit when we started accepting online reinstatements for all filing types couple of months ago.
Florida	Florida has noticed no increases in dissolutions of non-profits.
Georgia
Hawaii	I checked the nonprofit dissolutions, administrative and voluntary, there no marked increases in Hawaii.

Jurisdiction	Question(s)
	1. Is your state experiencing an subtle increase in administrative or voluntary dissolutions for non-profit corporations? (The last 12-24 months) a. If yes, have you analyzed the reason they are dissolving? b. If yes, have you made any corrections such as outreach or education? 2. Do you have a high % of reinstatements after administrative dissolution for non-profits?
Idaho
Illinois
Indiana	IN's administrative numbers are the same on average each month. We do not track nonprofit numbers specifically in regards to administrative dissolution or reinstatement.
Iowa
Kansas
Kentucky
Louisiana	Louisiana does not track dissolutions by corporation type.
Maine
Maryland
Massachusetts
Michigan	Michigan has not on both questions
Minnesota
Mississippi
Missouri
Montana	We also do not track specific numbers of dissolutions for a specific entity type, but in handling the documents I have not noticed an uptick in any one type of filing we normally handle.
Nebraska
Nevada	Nevada does not track dissolutions by corporation type. There has not been any marked increase in dissolutions.
New Hampshire
New Jersey
New Mexico
New York

Jurisdiction	Question(s)
	1. Is your state experiencing a subtle increase in administrative or voluntary dissolutions for non-profit corporations? (The last 12-24 months) a. If yes, have you analyzed the reason they are dissolving? b. If yes, have you made any corrections such as outreach or education? 2. Do you have a high % of reinstatements after administrative dissolution for non-profits?
North Carolina	Nonprofit entities are not required to file an annual report; therefore, there are very few adm. dissolutions on nonprofit entities. I haven't seen an increase in either voluntary or administrative dissolutions.
North Dakota	In North Dakota, we've seen the opposite. We've seen a spike in the number of nonprofit organization creations
Ohio	I have not noticed an increase in dissolutions and there is no option in Ohio to reinstate after a dissolution.
Oklahoma
Oregon
Pennsylvania
Rhode Island
South Carolina
South Dakota
Tennessee
Texas
Utah	Utah has not on both questions
Vermont
Virginia
Washington
West Virginia
Wisconsin
Wyoming

Additional comments:

Full text of email:

Afternoon everyone,

I have questions, curious to see if there is a trend.

1. Is your state experiencing an subtle increase in administrative or voluntary dissolutions for nonprofit corporations? (The last 12-24 months)
 - a. If yes, have you analyzed the reason they are dissolving?
 - b. If yes, have you made any corrections such as outreach or education?

2. Do you have a high % of reinstatements after administrative dissolution for nonprofits?

Thank you for the feedback, have a great weekend!

Patrick

Patrick Reed

Operations Manager

Division of Corporations and Charities

Office of the Secretary of State

360.725.0358

patrick.reed@sos.wa.gov