

PATRICK REED, Public & Government Affairs Manager, Corporations & Charities Division, Washington Secretary of State

Patrick Reed has been with the Office of the Secretary of State since 2008, previously as the manager of operations, including outreach and education, more recently as the manager for public and government affairs. This division records all domestic and foreign corporate entities in Washington State and registers charities, charitable trusts, and commercial fundraisers. His focus is to provide compliance information to new and existing businesses and charities to help them be successful in dealing with state rules and regulations. In addition, Patrick represents the Secretary of State's office as chair of the UBI board, as a member of the Governor's Small Business Liaison Team, a member of Results Washington, multiple inter-agency committees, and various stakeholder workgroups.
