

TREVOR TIMMONS, CIO, Colorado Department of State

Trevor Timmons has served the Colorado Secretary of State as Chief Information Officer since 2007 after eight years as Deputy CIO and Director of Software Development. During the time Mr. Timmons has served under several Secretaries of State, Colorado has gained a national reputation in several areas including elections administration, business registrations, and cyber security operations.