Jurisdiction	Question(s)
	North Carolina continues to have a high demand for creation/formation filings and we would to see how well we are doing compared to other filing offices. Can you provide me with your tune-around time beginning when the document comes into the agency and ending when the document is either filed or rejected. The time would include any holding time between tasks. I am very interested to hear how we are doing compared to all of you. Thank you in advance for your feedback.

Hawaii	Regular review is approximately 5 to 7 business days.                      Expedited review is approximately 1 to 3 business days.                      When we reject documents we give the filer 30 days to resubmit.

Illinois
Indiana
Iowa
Kansas
Kentucky
Louisiana	Our normal turn-around time for online and paper filings is 24-48 hours.                      Usually the only time this goes beyond that timeframe, is when our office has been closed e.g. a holiday, bad weather, etc We do offer expedite options for both online and paper filings, should they need to speed the processing time up anymore.
Maine
Maryland
Massachusetts
Michigan	In Michigan, our statutes require our review of documents in 10 business days from when our office receives it. Our office receives paper documents after they have been handled by the mail room and the cashiering office has deposited the check/payment. Our goal is to review 95% of documents within 3 business days. This really ebbs and flows throughout the year, such as during peak volume periods and other factors. Also, we meet the review time for documents requesting expedited service. Our expedited service levels are 1-hour, 2-hour, same-day, and 24 hour.

Ohio	Although we are still seeing a high volume of filings being submitted, we have been able to maintain a 1-day processing time for paper filings and same day for online submissions. We have staff working remotely processing all online filings and staff in the office processing all paper filings - this new approach has allowed us to be more efficient.
Oklahoma
Oregon
Pennsylvania
Rhode Island	Our average turnaround time here in RI is the same or next business day from receipt for both paper and online corporate filings.
